WISCONSIN WOMEN IN GOVERNMENT
2010-2011 UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP
GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

The Wisconsin Women in Government (WWIG) Undergraduate Scholarship program is designed to inspire women considering careers in public service, public administration and government affairs and to retain those students who have begun such studies, but who would have difficulty continuing their education without financial assistance. The purpose of the program is to make post-secondary education more accessible to women by relieving some of the financial burden. It is intended to retain those who have begun such studies but would have difficulty continuing without financial assistance.

The WWIG Undergraduate Scholarship program is funded through an annual fundraising banquet in Madison, Wisconsin.

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE

- $3,000 per year at any school among the U.W. System, Wisconsin Technical College System, and in-state private colleges affiliated with the Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities. Six scholarships total will be awarded.
- May be used for tuition, school supplies, childcare and to reduce loan burden.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must:

- Be a Wisconsin resident;
- Have financial need as determined by the receiving school based on applicant's eligibility for either the Federal Pell Grant Program, Wisconsin

Higher Education Grant (WHEG), Wisconsin Tuition Grant (WTG), or Talent Incentive Program (TIP);

- Be enrolled at the time of application as a full-time or part-time undergraduate student at any of the above institutions; and
- Plan to be enrolled as a full-time or part-time undergraduate student at any of the above institutions for the fall semester.

Students who will have received their Bachelor's degree by August 15th of the year of application are ineligible for this scholarship. Students in the process of transferring should apply through the institution where they will be enrolled in the fall semester.

CRITERIA

Students must:

- Have a C grade point average or better and maintain at least a C average for continuation;
- Possess leadership potential, initiative and excellent communication skills; and
- Have an interest in public service, government and the political process.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must submit the following items:

- A completed application form including answers to all questions;

GUIDELINES, continued

- A copy of her current transcript (this need not be a certified copy);
- A letter from the financial aid office at her school confirming her eligibility for financial aid as defined in the “Eligibility” section; and
- Two letters of recommendation from people who are familiar with the applicant and her skills, personality, work habits, etc. Recommendations must come from:
 - 1) a teacher, a school counselor or advisor; or
 - 2) an employer or individual with whom she has worked in a business, community or charitable effort.

SELECTION PROCESS

Completed applications and accompanying documents should be submitted to the school the applicant will attend during the scholarship year. U.W. System applicants should submit completed scholarship applications to the Vice Chancellor’s Office at their respective campuses. Students enrolled in the Wisconsin Technical College System and private colleges should submit applications to the financial aid director at their respective schools.

The school to which the applicant seeks admission shall first determine whether the applicant is eligible for the scholarship based on a process administered by the institution, which considers the criteria mentioned above. The U.W. System, Wisconsin Technical College System and Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities each may forward the names of up to six applicants for review and final selection.

Completed applications and accompanying documents should be submitted no later than April 30th. Do not send letters of recommendation, transcripts or financial aid rulings separately; they will not be considered unless they are included with the original application.

In its review of the scholarship applications, the WWIG Scholarship Committee will look for women who show promise of making a positive contribution to society. Scholarship recipients will be selected based on their leadership, demonstrated ability to handle responsibility, initiative, communication skills, academic achievement, community involvement and commitment to public service. Preference may be given to past WWIG scholarship recipients.

Scholarships will be awarded by July 30th.

TERM

Scholarships are effective for one year.

CONTINUED ELIGIBILITY

Scholarship recipients must provide GPA evidence of their continuing eligibility at the end of each semester. Scholarship recipients must notify WWIG of any change in their enrollment status during the term of the scholarship. If the scholarship recipient discontinues her studies during any semester of the scholarship term, the WWIG Scholarship Committee may award the balance to another scholarship finalist.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

Scholars will have the opportunity to mentor with a member of WWIG. Mentorships will be arranged at the request of the scholar. Scholarship recipients will be invited to attend and will receive one complimentary ticket to WWIG’s annual fundraising banquet in Madison, Wisconsin in the Spring of next year. If needed, scholarship recipients will also receive a nominal stipend as determined by the WWIG Scholarship Committee to defray travel and/or lodging costs to attend the banquet.
